

EXPERIENCEResearch Associate | Ivey Business School, UWO | London, ONApr 2026 – Present*

- Leads the design and execution of independent and collaborative research focused on Management and Organization Studies (MOS), develops project plans, applies analytical tools to evaluate results and delivers data-driven insights for academic publications.
- Trains research staff and students at the graduate level and manages remote research teams located in Calgary, São Paulo and Mexico City.

Public Affairs Representative | Canadian Armed Forces | London, ON*Nov 2021 – Jul 2026*

- Develops and implements strategic communications plans to enhance public awareness of the 31 Canadian Brigade Group's domestic operations, training, and international missions.
- Provides strategic communications advice to senior military leadership and identifies reputational risks and opportunities in southwestern Ontario. Manages digital content across official social media platforms, including Facebook and Instagram.

Communications Advisor | Lemma Academy | London & Toronto, ON*May 2025 – Sep 2025*

- Executes strategic communications to advance Lemma Academy's mission of expanding accessible STEM education for children and young adults in Guyana.
- Provides executive leadership with guidance on messaging and branding, while cultivating relationships with community organizations, including FIRST Robotics Canada and the Guyana Consulate.

FTSE Coordinator (HR Manager) | Canadian Army | London, ON*Jan 2025 – Sep 2025*

- Responsible for the human resources management of 31 Canadian Brigade Group soldiers employed during the summer training period.
- Coordinates the administration of personnel for summer training programs, managing documentation related to pay, leave and course participation while reporting logistical arrangements to leadership.

Communications Specialist | The Boys and Girls Club (BGC London)Jul 2024 – Jan 2025

- Provides strategic communications advice to enhance the visibility and community impact of the Boys and Girls Club (BGC) in the city of London.
- Implements integrated communication plans to strengthen stakeholder engagement, donor relations and public trust.

Special Education Resource Teacher | CsViamonde | London, ON*Sep 2022 – Mar 2026*

- Provides instructional and support services to students with special education with the French-language school board Viamonde.
- Ensures that students' individual learning requirements are met through accommodation, differentiated instruction and collaboration with educators, specialists, and families.

Team Leader and Instructor | Canadian Armed Forces | London, ON*Feb 2018 – Jul 2026*

- Manages professional development of Army personnel, provides consistent performance feedback, and develops technical training programs.

EDUCATION

Master's Journalism and Communications | Western University

Sep 2023 – Apr 2024

- Completed training in the strategic management of relationships between organizations and diverse publics, focusing on professional persuasion and audience education.
- Mastered interchangeable skills across journalism and communications, including data analytics and metrics, research, and professional writing for several platforms.

Master's English Studies & Literature | Western University

Sep 2022 – Apr 2024

- Gained strong foundational skills in clear, concise and engaging writing, grammar, style, and editing, essential for crafting effective digital and social media copy. Acquired practical skills in strategic communication, digital media and professional writing for various platforms.
- Directed classroom sessions and mentored students, honing the ability to present information clearly and improve upon student writing outcomes.

Bachelor Double Major: English and French | Western University

Sep 2018 – Apr 2022

- Developed professional-grade writing and editing skills in both English and French; furthermore, achieved native fluency in written and spoken French, enabling seamless communication and collaboration in bilingual environments.

SKILLS

- Tools: Adobe Creative Cloud, Adobe InDesign, Canva, Slack, Meta Business Suite, Hootsuite, Microsoft SharePoint, Microsoft Teams, Google Analytics, Excel and DWAN (Military Intranet).
- Trilingualism: Natively fluent in both Spanish and French. Capable of reading and understanding Portuguese and Catalan. Professional experience delivering written and verbal communications in all three languages for educational and community-based audiences.
- Strategic Communications and Public Affairs: Implements communications strategies to increase public awareness of organizational initiatives, including public-sector, non-profit, military and government programs. Provides strategic communications advice to senior leadership, identifying reputational risks and opportunities.
- Stakeholder Engagement and Relationship Management: Builds and maintains partnerships with community organizations, educational institutions, military units and nonprofit stakeholders.
- Content Strategy: Develops editorial calendars aligned with organizational priorities, campaigns, events and ceremonies. Produces coordinated messaging across internal and external channels to support outreach and fundraising initiatives.
- Professional Writing and Editing: Produces quality communications materials including press releases, newsletters, website copy, social media content, briefing notes and organizational announcements.
- Digital Media Management: Manages organizational social media platforms, Facebook and Instagram. Plans, creates, edits and publishes content to increase audience engagement and promote events or community outreach.
- Media Relations: Coordinates media inquiries, interviews and public-facing communications for governmental, military and nonprofit organizations. Supports outreach initiatives to enhance visibility and consolidate public trust.
- Project Coordination and Community Communications: Experience in project oversight and management. Coordinates multi-channel communication initiatives, supports the promotion of events, and public initiatives.